C&O Family Chess Center offers unique programs aimed at nurturing a love of the game of chess, and offering students and families the means to develop their skills to the highest levels. Parents are as essential as coaches in encouraging students to practice regularly and come to class on time and prepared. Registration on Chess.com (our online practice site) is the responsibility of parents. This 'between classes practice' portion of the club is essential for the full benefit of our program. More detailed information about the center, its programs, and Chess.com registration may be found at <http://chesscenter.net/scholastic.html>

Snow Days and Absences

C&O Family Chess Center follows the MCPS policy for snow days. However Home-Schoolers are encouraged to call the center if in doubt. If closed due to weather, students are encouraged to go online with their Chess.com accounts and practice with other students. Coaches may be online, as well, for questions and other chess chat. The same opportunities are available on scheduled school closing days and Holidays. Absences due to weather or illness may be made up at the Saturday Morning Chess Club in Lakeforest Mall. Ask your coach, or check our website for details.
