

C&O Family Chess Center Scholastic Programs:
The Saturday Morning Chess Club
At Lakeforest Mall
2015 Schedule and Registration

Most Saturday Mornings, 9:00 to 10:45 AM:

Drop-In $15/class session (non-members $20/class session)

Ten Class Pass for members only $100

The Saturday Morning Chess Club (SMCC) is held at Lakeforest Mall in Gaithersburg, with Coach Omar Pancoast and staff. It is open to students and adults. Group classes may include individual and group instruction, as well as club-rated, practice. Visit www.chesscenter.net for more information.

Beginning students will learn basic chess skills while more advanced players will learn strategy and tactics at their own levels. The SMCC is intended for the serious student, as well as the casual player seeking to improve. Students should bring their own chess equipment (new students may be supplied with a set if they can't afford one). All students will get access to free study materials and practice at an appropriate level. For full benefit, parents should plan for students to spend an hour, or more, per class session. Parents need not stay in the food court during the club session but are welcome to do so. Parents are requested not to be directly in the chess area during the club session unless registered for class or volunteering as a club aide operating under club guidelines.

Students are invited (with their families) to get unlimited extra free play, seven-days-a-week, here at Lakeforest Mall (please bring your own equipment) and by joining our free group on Chess.com. Here they can play against other C&O students and coaches, as well as players from around the world. Chess.com games may be downloaded and brought in for analysis with our coaches.

The club will meet on most Saturdays from 9:00 to 10:45 AM

Check our website, or call the center in advance, to check on specific dates. We always look forward to welcoming former members and meeting new members! For information or questions about any of our chess programs please don't hesitate to contact us.
